'My Garden 1849-1949' Is Flower Show Theme

A new California Centennial Commission float, strikingly symbolizing the '49 Gold Rush and Statehood, will appear in Glendale on August 13 and 14 as a feature of the Southern California Mid-Summer Flower Show Inc. This show with its theme "My Garden 1849-1949" will feature the golden era so rich in historical heritage. Entries are now being accepted in this mid-season show. Schedules can be obtained by writing the Garden Show Manager, Baker Lloyd, Los Angeles Garden Center, 245 S. Kingsley Dr., Los Angeles 4, or the Co-Manager, Noel Scott, 1436 Stanley, Glendale. There is no entry fee and no charge for the entry blanks and schedule. Entries can be found in everything from vegetable to petunias, from lovely dahlias to a men's section. The youngsters are more than welcome and a complete section specimens, miniature gardens has been provided for them in and arrangements. The ladies will appreciate the miniature section as well as the simple-to-enter arrangement section with its new divisions. Outstanding exhibits in the show will be brought in by the Bulb Society, the California Fuchsia Society, the American Begonia Society, the Los Angeles Garden Center, the San Fernando Dahlia Society, The Los Angeles Garden Club and many others. The Southern California Mid-Summer Flower Show was incorporated under a non-profit charter by the San Fernando Dahlia and Garden Society and the Los Angeles Garden Center, Inc. The show has been dedicated to the amateur and to the showing of what can be done with blooming materials from zinnias to dahlias during the so-called "off season." Highlights of the show include lectures, tunnel of dahlias, a completely planted garden, wandering walks, and various exhibits by other garden clubs. A new traffic flow has been made for the show where everything can be seen by walking in just one direction, to the right! All entries must be in the show on Saturday the 13th by 10 a.m. The show will open for the two-day run on August 13 at 2 p.m. Admission is 50 cents including tax.

Silver Crest Rebekahs Install New Officers

With 125 members and guests attending the ceremonies, officers of Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge were installed by District Deputy President Mamie Rupe and her staff from Silver Wave Rebekah Lodge of Santa Monica. Martha Spikes, junior past noble grand, called the meeting to order and the officers assumed their stations, with Minerva Keller, noble grand, presiding, Deputy Grand Master William King of District 48, a member of this lodge, was introduced and welcomed, as was District Deputy President Olive Veach of District 84, a member of Trio Rebekah Lodge.

In the course of the ceremony officers-elect were presented to the deputy president for instructions and obligations. Elective officers included Alice Tibbet, noble grand; Esther Larratt, vice grand; Sarah Neukaemper, recording secretary; Nella Dion, financial secretary; and Agnes Morgan, treasurer. These all were installed by the deputy grand officers.

Committees selected were Solida Beaver, Allie Gentry and Theresa Walters, finance; Agnes Vitale and Sadie Tibbet, drill captain; Sarah Neukaemper, press; Allie Gentry, district school of instruction; Sarah Neukaemper, good fellowship and Petrina Sheldon and Ida Wright, flower committee.

The deputy president and her staff then presented intricate drills. Grand Deputy officers were attired for the occasion in green formal. They carried large pink bows with sequin buttons, and the escort girls wore pink formal with green bows and sequin buttons. As a finale the deputy and marshal stood in the center and the staff sang "Buttons and Bows" with appropriate words for the occasion.

Program Chairman Sarah Neukaemper presented Mr. and Mrs. Albert Snyder, who played several violin and piano duets and Miss Ellen Larratt presented selections on the Hawaiian guitar.

As the ceremonies drew to a close Nella Dion presented the past noble grand jewel to Minerva Keller, a gift from the lodge in recognition of services rendered as noble grand. She thanked the lodge and then the noble grand presented a pottery "Merry Oldsmobile" and a gift of money to the deputy president. A similar gift was presented to the deputy marshal by the vice grand.

The deputy president complimented the noble grand and vice grand on their proficiency in their work and wished the officers a successful term.

Sadie Tibbet presented Minerva Keller with a gift from the Past Noble Grand Club and invited her to attend their meetings. The past noble grand, noble grand and vice grand received many gifts from their families and friends.

Concluding the evening, refreshments were served.

Young Matron Complimented With Shower

Among the attractively appointed parties of the week was a stork shower given to compliment Mrs. A. L. Widner Jr. The hostesses for the enjoyable affair were Mrs. Leonard Sullivan and Mrs. Sam Broos at the home of the former, 2117 Torrance boulevard.

Pink and blue crepe paper was effectively given to create party favors and a large stork guarded the gifts intended for the Widner heir-to-be.

Games occupied the ladies following the presentation of gifts arranged in a decorated basin and later dainty refreshments were served buffet style.

Present were the honoree and Mes. Fern Mathews, Elmer Scovill, W. F. Burger, L. M. Kelly, Louis Weigand, Ray Green, James Patton, Ben Friberg Jr., H. H. Rittmiller, Hal McCool, Ed Friberg, Joseph Zaninovich, Phil Brennan, Ray McIntire, Lucien Clark, Jack Jacobs, Herb Blackwell, James Daniel, Irvin Smith, Jess Dean, and the Misses Evelyn Lanz and Betty Fuson.

Foster Songs To Highlight Sing Monday

A tribute to Stephen Foster will be an incentive for many attending Monday night's Community Sing at Wilmington. The American folk songs, familiar to everyone, will be sung throughout the program under the direction of Seattle Sloan from the Los Angeles City Bureau of Music. Marguerite Hogue will be the accompanist.

Soloists appearing on the program will be Lois Pulley, soprano; and Jean Arnold, contralto. Mrs. Margery Mudgett will be narrator. Also appearing on the same program will be Ruby Fay featuring tap dance numbers.

The Community Sing is held during the summer weeks in Banning Park, at 7:30 o'clock Monday evenings. Between 100 and 125 are attending the program weekly, but the committee in charge state there is always room for more.

Girl Scouts Visit Radio Broadcast

A number of events are scheduled for members of Girl Scout Troop No. 643, sponsored by Harbor City PTA, for the coming weeks. On Saturday, August 6, the girls will visit the Pan Pacific Fisheries and on August 15 they will train for San Diego to spend the day at the zoo.

Last Saturday the troop attended an interesting radio broadcast entitled "It's Fun to be Young."

Parents assisting with transportation were Mrs. Doris Hawkins, Mrs. Luella Beane, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sion, and Mrs. Doris Allmon. Troop members attending were Doris Allman, Donna Beane, Paula Dixon, Yvonne Gimenez, Marlene Gull, Alice Head, Natilie Hawkins, Patricia Knecht, Helen Ruiz, Loletta Simmons, Shirley Shelton, Sylvia Stone, Carol Ann Sion, Margie Sion, Margie Vannatter and Sandra Wilkerson.

Daughter Is Born

Patricia Ann is the newest member of the Carl J. Forkum family of 1407 Madrid avenue.

The baby, who tipped the scales at eight pounds, 13 ounces was born July 25 at a Los Angeles hospital. On hand to welcome Mrs. Forkum and the new baby, was the popular couple's first-born daughter, Mary Lou.

A child enters your home and makes so much noise for twenty years that you can hardly stand it; then parents, leaving the house so silent that you think you will go mad.
